

The Crisis Center (Juvenile Detox) is an 8-bed, short-term residential alcohol and substance abuse detox facility located in Gallup, NM. The Crisis Center is a regional facility that opened its doors on March 23, 2001 to provide short term alcohol and substance abuse crisis intervention & social detoxification services for youth, ages 12 to 17. Youth entering the Detox will be assessed by a Licensed Evaluator to help determine individualized referral needs that would have otherwise gone under the radar had the youth NOT been brought in to receive assistance.

Law Enforcement agencies, Area Schools & the Gallup Juvenile Probation Office (JPO) are authorized to refer juveniles for admission to the JSACC Crisis Center (Detox).
